Consequences of Electronic Filing.

(a) Electronic transmission of a document to the electronic filing system consistent with these rules, together with the transmission of a Notice of Electronic Filing from the Court, constitutes filing of the document for all purposes of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the local rules of this Court; constitutes entry of the document on the docket kept by the Clerk under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Official Bankruptcy Rules; and, constitutes service under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Official Bankruptcy Rules upon those filing users who receive the Notice of Electronic Filing.

(b) When a document has been filed electronically, the official record is the electronic recording of the document as stored by the Court, and the filing party is bound by the document as filed.

(c) Filing a document electronically does not alter the filing deadline for that document. Filing must be completed before midnight local time where the Court is located in order to be considered timely filed that day.
